

LOCAL LEGACY CIRCLE: A LEGACY OF SUPPORT FOR THE WOMEN AND GIRLS OF EAST JEFFERSON COUNTY

Become a member of the Local Legacy Circle by making a planned gift to the University Women's Foundation (UWF) and a commitment to the future of women and girls in East Jefferson County. Would you like to participate in providing a stable funding base for the important work we do in the community to promote equity and education for women? Would you like to help ensure the success of long-term programs and initiatives? Would you like to leave a legacy of opportunities for women in our community? One easy way to do all of this is through a bequest to UWF.

Here is an example of bequest language you might add to your will:

After fulfilling all other provisions, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to the University Women's Foundation of Jefferson County (Federal Tax ID# 91-1630813, a charitable organization duly existing under the laws of the State of Washington, _____ percent of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate or $ _____ (if specific amount) to be used in the areas of greatest need as the board of directors may determine.

Note: You should always consult an estate planning professional to ensure your will meets all legal requirements. Also, consult with your tax adviser concerning your specific circumstances, but in general, bequests to a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, such as UWF, are excluded from your adjusted gross estate for estate tax purposes.

QUESTIONS?

For general questions, or if you wish to fulfill a special intention with your bequest, please contact the UWF Board President (see membership directory for name of current president).

Information you share about your planned gift is confidential, nonbinding and for internal accounting purposes only.
